If you have a 200-300-hour yoga teaching qualification or a one month's only teacher training qualification, you must be able to show that you have been teaching regular yoga classes for a minimum of two years prior to the start of this course. Likewise, students are required to read the course syllabus prior to enrolment. This is available online via our website: www.devonyoga.com

STUDY

This 80 hour 10-day course (set over 5 monthly weekends) offers a broad spectrum of techniques from within the yoga tradition specially adapted to meet the needs of pregnant and postnatal women in a supportive and safe way.

Pregnancy, childbirth and the postnatal period can be some of life's most fulfilling and challenging events that women and their families undertake. The practices of yoga are well known to reduce stress and anxiety, to strengthen and open our bodies and to enrich our lives with clarity and joy. This is why yoga is uniquely placed to holistically support a woman and her family through these transitional times.

NB: Full attendance is expected

In the event of days or weekends being missed due to unforeseen circumstances, the school allows for 2 days to be missed in total without interfering with the course hours for certification. If more than 2 days are missed, the reasons will need to be addressed and these lost hours must be made up. This is arranged with the tutors.

If attendance is to be missed on any day or weekend, or if you arrive late or leave early, please let the DSU office know as-well-as another member of the group (preferably in advance). Thanks.
