2-YEAR TEACHER TRAINING COURSE 2024-2026
CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

APPLICATION

Students wishing to apply for the Devon School of Yoga (DSY) Yoga Teacher Training Course must meet the following pre-requisites:

- To have been practising yoga for a minimum of 2 years (including attendance at classes, workshops, retreats, home practice, etc).
- or
- To have completed the DSY's Yoga Foundation Course or another school's yoga foundation course.

STUDY

This is 500-hour yoga registered course. It is spread over 43 tutor-led days (20 weekends of which three are Friday-Sunday full board residentials – each of these residentials is included in the course fee) plus home study and practice. For a full overview of course hours, please see the course syllabus.

Full attendance is expected throughout the course plus course work must be completed to an acceptable standard before the end of the course to receive the DSY yoga teacher training qualification.

In the event of days or weekends being missed due to unforeseen circumstances, the school allows for 4 days to be missed in total without interfering with the course hours for receiving the diploma. If more than 4 days are missed, the reasons will need to be addressed and these lost hours must be made up. This is arranged with the school director.

If attendance is to be missed on any day or weekend, or if you arrive late or leave early, please let the DSY office know as well as another member of the group (preferably in advance). Thanks.
